

Kathie Clemenz, completed her presidency of United Women in Faith of Indiana at the end of 2023. She is a resident of Indianapolis where she is a member of St. Luke's United Methodist Church. She and her late husband are the parents of three adult sons and have 8 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. Kathie taught for over 30 years in elementary schools in Illinois and Indiana.

Kathie has been active in missions all her adult life having served local, district and conference offices in United Methodist Women and as a member of the board of the Lucille Raines Residence, a ministry of United Women in Faith of Indiana for recovering substance abusers. In addition, she has served as a member of the Indiana Conference Board of Laity, the Conference Nominating Committee, and the Conference Coordinating Council and presently serves on the Episcopacy Committee. From 2005-2008 she served on the Advance Committee for the denomination.

Believing that being in mission means reaching out and touching individual lives, she has traveled with mission teams to Haiti, Zimbabwe, and Ukraine and, in this country, to Mississippi, Kentucky, and South Dakota. For thirteen summers she led and participated in a family work team to the Rosebud Indian Reservation in South Dakota.

Hobbies include reading, scrapbooking, and gardening.

The scripture that empowers her in her continuing service to God is Phillipians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.?"
